FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Join 1517 Media at the American Library Association (ALA) Conference

MINNEAPOLIS – 1517 Media is proud to announce its participation in the American Library Association’s (ALA) spring conference in Washington DC. The ALA conference provides quality education for library professionals from across the nation. “Together Again!” is the theme of this year’s conference. 1517 Media is proud to be together again with ALA.

New titles from Beaming Books, Broadleaf Books, and Fortress Press will be represented in Booth 1242. There will also be an in-booth meet and greet and galley signing with Romal and Jordan Tune, authors of I Wish My Dad: The Power of Vulnerable Conversations between Fathers and Sons on June 26 from 10:30–11:30 am.

1517 Media was recently profiled in Publishers Weekly as a fast-growing publisher, with three strong, growing imprints. Broadleaf Books was launched in Fall 2020 and focuses on exploring religion, spirituality, social justice, and personal growth. Since then, Broadleaf has continued to establish its brand by finding some good traction for titles including Parable of the Brown Girl, Hidden Mercy, and Lightmaker’s Manifesto.

The Beaming Books imprint was launched in 2016 with the mission of helping kids thrive emotionally, socially, and spiritually. Recent success for Beaming includes: The Boy with Big, Big Feelings, When Charley Met Emma, and Thanksgiving in the Woods, and Lift the Flap Bible Stories.

Fortress Press continues its long tradition of publishing for the academy, for the classroom, and church leaders across the categories of theology, biblical studies, history, religion, ministry, and more.
