JUMP! LIBRARY CELEBRATES 10TH BIRTHDAY AT 2022 ALA CONFERENCE

(MINNEAPOLIS, June 2, 2022) —Jump! Library is celebrating its 10th birthday this year while exhibiting at the 2022 ALA Conference & Exhibition.

Treats and giveaways will be available at booth #1319, where the Minneapolis-based publisher will showcase books from their spring and fall 2022 seasons. New series include Let's Look at Body Systems!, which features beautifully illustrated books that explore how our bodies work and Facing Life's Challenges, a series from their Blue Owl imprint, which focuses on important social and emotional learning topics.

Founded in 2012, Jump! Library is dedicated to serving the library market with engaging, high-quality fiction and nonfiction books for beginning readers. Known for their imprints for beginning readers, such as Tadpole and Bullfrog Books, Jump! Library has published almost 1,500 titles in its first 10 years, many of which are also available in Spanish.
