Join Norwood House Press at ALA

Norwood House Press is thrilled to be returning to ALA in-person this year. They will be showcasing their award-winning books and giving away some exciting prizes! (Booth#1121)

If you're attending, don't forget to stop by the booth early, they're giving away 350 hardcover sets of the 8 book Language Builders series. The series helps young readers learn how to use the English language correctly. They join in on the fun as friends learn the basics of finding different types of words in a sentence and using them correctly. Each book in the Language Builders series covers a different part of speech. From adjectives to interjections, they learn how these parts of speech electrify speaking and writing.

Among the books that will be on display, Norwood House Press is proud to release their new Spring titles featuring a new series! The Big Feelings series is now available in Spanish for readers grades K-2. Educators and psychologists are in agreement that the pandemic and related school closings have created emotional issues for many young children. The nonfiction series is an early introduction to social and emotional learning and is designed to help students learn to recognize and name 8 different feelings so they can begin to discuss and manage the.
